Case No. 2:07-CV-00682- PMP-LRL

OBJECTION TO EXHIBIT "A"
SUBMITTED BY DEFENDANT MENU
FOODS

JUDGE: Hon. Philip M. Pro

20
 21
 22
 23
 24 Plaintiff Margaret Picus objects to Exhibit "A" submitted by Defendant Menu Foods in 25 connection with the motion to dismiss under Rule 12 as follows:

26 1. Authenticity

27 The document attached as Exhibit "A" is not authenticated and therefore is not admissible
 28 under Fed. R. Evid., Rule 901.

1     2.     Relevancy

2             Defendant Menu Foods submits Exhibit "A" to purportedly establish as a matter of fact that
 3     Menu Foods retained no benefit from their alleged wrongdoing because they have recalled the product
 4     and paid refunds. This exhibit is irrelevant for multiple reasons and is therefore inadmissible under 5     Fed. R. Evid., Rule 402. First, Defendant's purported recall has nothing to do with the claims of the 6     Class. Defendant's recall notice directed consumers to return certain contaminated lots to receive
 7     a refund of the purchase price because certain of the mislabeled lots were contaminated. The package
 8     where the product was not only mislabeled but also contaminated and injurious was but one of 9     Plaintiff's many mislabeled products purchased by Plaintiff from Defendants. The Class in this case
 10    as represented by Plaintiff is far broader than the few consumers affected by adulteration of a
 11    few lots and the benefit retained is not confined to the adulterated lots. Here the Class is 12    composed of all consumers who during the Class Period purchased products from Defendants that 13    were falsely and fraudulently mislabeled as "Made in the U.S.A."

14    3.     Exhibit "A" Is Hearsay and Cannot Be Used in a Rule 12 Motion to Dismiss

15             Exhibit "A" purports to be extrinsic evidence on a disputed issue of fact is simply never proper
 16    on a motion to dismiss under Rule 12. Arpin v. Santa Clara Valley Transp. Agency, 261 F.3d 912, 925
 17    (9th Cir. 2001). The evidence is not a matter which is subject to judicial notice.<sup>1</sup> Fed. R. Evid. §201.
 18    The evidence is undeniable hearsay as to the disputed issue of whether the benefit was retained by 19    Defendants. Fed. R. Evid. § 801 and § 802. The evidence is being used to contest the allegations of 20    the pleading, which are assumed to be correct on a motion to dismiss. The Complaint, at paragraphs
 21    46 and 47, plainly alleges that Defendants retained the improper benefit. This important factual issue
 22    cannot be resolved by reference to a single hearsay piece of evidence during a motion to dismiss.
 23    Simpson, supra, 452 F.3d at 1046. Plaintiff strongly disputes the document as evidence that no benefit
 24    was retained by the Defendant from the misrepresentation of geographic origin, and as such, the Court

25             

 26    <sup>1</sup> None of the authorities cited by Del Monte support the consideration of this document. In every 27    one of the authorities cited, the document considered by the Court was a contract or agreement
 28    referenced in the pleadings upon which the claim was based, not a disputed issue of fact concerning the defendant's conduct. Here, the recall is not "central" to Plaintiff's claim, rather, what is central is Defendants' misrepresentation concerning the geographic origin of the products, which fraud was admitted in the recall.

1 may not consider the document as evidence on this disputed factual issue. Marder v. Lopez, 450 F.3d
2 445, 448 (9th Cir. 2006); Erickson v. Horing, 2000 U.S. Dist. Lexis 22432, *30 (D. Minn 2000).

4 For all of these reasons, Plaintiff respectfully submits that the Court should not consider
5 Exhibit "A" for the purposes argued by Defendant Menu Foods, and if the Court were to consider any 6 extrinsic evidence or documents, Plaintiff has a right to discovery and must be allowed discovery to 7 rebut and respond to this factual issue.
